

BBYO CODE OF CONDUCT

The BBYO Code of Conduct is designed with the health, safety and well-being of teens, staff, advisors and participants in mind. Teens are expected to adhere to these expectations and to act in accordance with the values of BBYO so that they are seen as role models within BBYO and the community at-large. Failure to do so could result in disciplinary action up to and including dismissal from a program and/or expulsion from BBYO. In some situations, more specific rules may be required to ensure safety. When that is necessary, teens will be made aware prior to registration and are expected to comply.

In situations where teens do not follow program rules or uphold the values of BBYO, consequences will result. Disciplinary action is guided by an organization-wide standard to ensure consistency and fairness however consequences vary based on circumstances. Below is a guideline. Final action is at the discretion of BBYO's professional staff.
